About Me

What I Do at MSK

- Director, Adult Bone Marrow Transplantation Fellowship Program

Get To Know Me

I am a medical oncologist with clinical expertise in caring for adults undergoing stem cell transplantation for hematologic malignancies. My laboratory research is focused on the development of immunotherapy for cancer, with a specific interest in cellular therapies, including cancer vaccines. A major goal of my research is to thoroughly characterize the immune profiles of people with cancer to inform the rational development of immunotherapeutic interventions for cancer.

My Role at MSK

A bone marrow transplant specialist is a doctor with special training in bone marrow transplants.

Disclosures

Doctors and faculty members often work with pharmaceutical, device, biotechnology, and life sciences companies, and other organizations outside of MSK, to find safe and effective cancer treatments, to improve patient care, and to educate the health care community.

MSK requires doctors and faculty members to report ("disclose") the relationships and financial interests they have with external entities. As a commitment to transparency with our community, we make that information available to the public.

David J. Chung discloses the following relationships and financial interests:

No disclosures meeting criteria for time period

If you're a patient at MSK and would like more information about your doctor's external relationships, please talk with your doctor.

The information published here is for a specific annual disclosure period. There may be differences between information on this and other public sites as a result of different reporting periods and/or the various ways relationships and financial interests are categorized by organizations that publish such data.

This page and data include information for a specific MSK annual disclosure period (January 1, 2022 through disclosure submission in spring 2023). This data reflects interests that may or may not still exist. This data is updated annually.
