

Home > Cancer Care > Hospital Information > Visiting Us

Hospital Information: Air Travel Assistance

For patients and families needing assistance with air travel to Memorial Sloan-Kettering, we suggest the following resources:

Corporate Angel Network

866-328-1313

The Corporate Angel Network, a volunteer organization, is available to help you with free long-distance air travel to or from the hospital. There is no financial need requirement.

The Air Care Alliance

888-260-9707

The Air Care Alliance lists many humanitarian air transport groups that provide free flights for patients with medical needs. This organization and its affiliates operate in most areas of the United States. Patients have no financial obligations.

Air Charity Network

877-621-7177

Air Charity Network coordinates flights across the continental United States as well as Alaska and Hawaii for patients or caregivers in need. Flights are available through independent member organizations in specific locations.

Angel Flight, Inc.

918-749-8992

The volunteers and pilots of Angel Flight offer charitable flights to patients traveling primarily to or from the heartland region of the United States. Angel Flight can also coordinate flights out of their targeted areas with other aviation organizations.

©2013 Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center

Source URL (retrieved on 05/09/2013 - 3:12 AM): <http://www.mskcc.org/cancer-care/hospital-information/air-travel-assistance>