

Frequently Asked Questions

1. How was the course developed? Who teaches it?

The course is a product of faculty and staff of the Integrative Medicine Service at Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center.

Top

2. How long does it take to complete the course?

The entire course lasts 2 hours. It contains 2 lectures; individual lectures vary from 45 to 60 minutes each. You have 30 days from the date of your registration to complete the course.

Top

3. Is there a test at the end of the course? If so, how is it graded? If you don't pass it the first time, how many times can you take it?

There is no exam at the end of this course.

Top

4. Are credits recognized by individual state licensing boards?

Credits for this course are recognized by the National Certification Commission for Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine. NCCAOM credits are recognized in all but nine states (CA, WY, ND, SD, KS, OK, LA, AL, and MD). Of these nine these states, some have their own exam; others have no regulation.

Top

5. Why do I only see the introduction page when I enter the course for the first time?

The course is designed so that each lecture becomes available only after the previous lecture is viewed. After you complete a lecture, you can return to view it again if you wish.

Top

6. How long will I have access to course material?

Your log-in will be active for 30 days from the day you purchase the course. After 30 days, your log-in will become inactive, and you will no longer have access to the course.

Top

7. Will I be able to print course materials?

Yes. You can download the PowerPoint presentations for each lecture.

Top

8. Can I share course information with other professionals and/or colleagues?

No. Only people registered for the course have access to course materials.

Top

9. How long will the course be posted on Memorial Sloan-Kettering Web site?

The course will be permanently posted to the Memorial Sloan-Kettering Web site and there is no cut off date as to when you can sign up for the course.