

We will meet you wherever you are on your spiritual journey.

Any patient or caregiver at Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center (MSK) can ask a member of your care team to refer you for spiritual care. A chaplain will contact you to set up a visit. You can also set up a visit with a chaplain by calling 212-639-5982 or stopping by room C-170.

Our chaplains can talk with you in person, over the phone, or by video using a computer, smartphone, or tablet.

“Unconditional”

by Jennifer Welwood

Willing to experience aloneness,
I discover connection everywhere;
Turning to face my fear,
I meet the warrior who lives within;
Opening to my loss,
I gain the embrace of the universe;
Surrendering into emptiness,
I find fullness without end.
Each condition I flee from pursues me,
Each condition I welcome transforms me
And becomes itself transformed
Into its radiant jewel-like essence.
I bow to the one who has made it so,
Who has crafted this Master Game;
To play it is purest delight;
To honor its form – true devotion.

About spirituality

If you ask 10 people what spirituality or religion means, you can get 10 different answers. They may not mean the same thing to everyone. For some people, spirituality is religion, but for others it may be inner strength or a life philosophy. Chaplains will offer you support that's based on whatever spirituality means to you. We're here to support your spiritual practice and how it helps you in both good times and bad.

We hope having someone listen to you with an open heart and mind can guide you through hard times. We can help you get strength from your spiritual practices that you count on in times of need. As chaplains, we connect you with your own beliefs and values so you can find your way forward during hard times.

Our board-certified chaplains in Spiritual Care Services at MSK have advanced degrees in religious and theological studies. We also have advanced certification in clinical pastoral care.
