About Me

What I Do at MSK

- Director, Neuroradiology IR

Get To Know Me

I am a neuroradiologist and Director of Interventional Neuroradiology at Memorial Sloan Kettering. I have special expertise in the imaging of pediatric tumors of the brain, spine, and neck. I also have strong interest in the imaging of spinal disease, with a particular expertise in computed tomography-guided biopsies of the spine. My neurosurgical colleagues and I are currently involved in the introduction of intraoperative magnetic resonance imaging.

Disclosures

Doctors and faculty members often work with pharmaceutical, device, biotechnology, and life sciences companies, and other organizations outside of MSK, to find safe and effective cancer treatments, to improve patient care, and to educate the health care community.

MSK requires doctors and faculty members to report ("disclose") the relationships and financial interests they have with external entities. As a commitment to transparency with our community, we make that information available to the public.

Eric Lis discloses the following relationships and financial interests:
