About Me

What I Do at MSK

- Chair, Department of Neurology
- Chief, Brain Tumor Service
- Evnin Family Chair in Neuro-Oncology

Get To Know Me

I am a medical oncologist specializing in the diagnosis, treatment, and management of central nervous system (CNS) tumors, with a focus on low-grade glioma and glioblastoma.

As Chair of the Department of Neurology, I lead a team of experts in neuro-oncology, neurology, clinical neurophysiology, clinical neuropsychology, and rehabilitation medicine. We evaluate and treat people with all types of primary brain tumors (tumors that start in the brain). We also care for patients with brain metastases or leptomeningeal (LEP-toh-meh-NIN-jee-ul) metastases from other cancers, neurologic effects of cancer or its treatment, and a broad range of conditions requiring physical rehabilitation.
