

PATIENT & CAREGIVER EDUCATION

Adult Survivors of Childhood Cancers Support Group (RLAC)

While diagnosis and treatment for cancer is disruptive at any stage in life, this is especially so when diagnosis occurs in childhood. Join fellow adult survivors of childhood cancers for a discussion of the issues unique to this population such as family relationships, changed perspectives, and late effects of treatment.

This group is for adults who were treated for cancer as children or teenagers.