

PATIENT & CAREGIVER EDUCATION

Advance Care Planning in Treatment and Survivorship

This session will discuss the importance of advance care planning following a cancer diagnosis and treatment. We will review how life planning documents such as a health care proxy can be of value if you cannot communicate your own wishes.

Audience

This program is open to the community.