Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center

PATIENT & CAREGIVER EDUCATION

Breast Cancer: Young Women with Metastatic Disease

Audience

This is a support group for young women undergoing treatment for metastatic breast cancer. This group is led by oncology social workers.

This support group is held the first and third Friday of every month.

All social work support groups and programs are currently held online.