

PATIENT & CAREGIVER EDUCATION

Challenges and Triumphs: Life After a Stem Cell Transplant

A support meeting aimed at exploring the short and long term impact of stem cell transplant, including fatigue, feelings of vulnerability, fear of relapse, and changes in life perspective.

Audience

Participants in this group must be patients at Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center and must have access to a computer and a telephone.

Contact

Registration for this event is required. To register or learn more, please email VirtualGroups@mskcc.org.

For more information or consultation, please email virtualprograms@mskcc.org