The Full Story: Endometrial Cancer and You

Memorial Sloan Kettering and SHARE are excited to host The Full Story: Endometrial Cancer and You. During this event, Dr. Carol Brown, Chief Equity Officer at Memorial Sloan Kettering, and Nefa-tari Moore, a cancer survivor and SHARE Ambassador will talk about the impact of endometrial cancer on women of color. They will share valuable educational insights and personal experiences about endometrial cancer.

This is an open event and we hope you will join us on Thursday, September 30 at 6:00 p.m., for this important discussion.
