

PATIENT & CAREGIVER EDUCATION

Men and Cancer Support Group

This is a group for men who are finished with treatment. The group will address common areas of concern including building stamina, sexual health, employment, communicating with the health care team, and managing concerns about recurrence.

Audience

Participants in this group must be patients at Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center and must have access to a computer and a telephone.

2:30pm - 3:30pm

Contact

Registration for this event is required. To register or learn more, please contact virtualprograms@mskcc.org.