

PATIENT & CAREGIVER EDUCATION

Parenting with Cancer: Patients with Young Children and Teens

This is a live, online support group for patients, and their partners, currently undergoing treatment at MSK with young children and teens. The group offers the opportunity to share personal experiences, discuss ways to help children during this time, and provide practical and emotional support to one another around balancing parenting and treatment.

Discussions are led by social workers.

Contact

Registration for this event is required. To register or learn more, please contact virtualprograms@mskcc.org.