

PATIENT & CAREGIVER EDUCATION

Returning to Work After Cancer

This lecture will cover practical concerns that may arise when dealing with cancer in the workplace. Whether you are looking for a new job after treatment or needing additional accommodations, this session will provide information to help you take your next steps.

Audience

This program is open to the community.