Women in Treatment

This is an online support group for women receiving treatment (chemotherapy, radiation, immunotherapy) at MSK. Discussions will focus on coping with a cancer diagnosis and undergoing active treatment. The group will provide ways to connect, learn coping strategies, share information and experiences, express feelings, and gain support from others. Women with different cancer diagnoses and types of treatment are welcome. This group is led by oncology social workers.

Audience:
This support group is open to MSK patients.
