

Ready to start planning your care? Call us at 800-525-2225 to make an appointment.

×

Memorial Sloan Kettering
Cancer Center

Make an Appointment

Back

MSK's Community Outreach Programs

Refer a Patient

Refer a Patient

...

ABOUT US

Our mission, vision & core values

Leadership

History

Equality, diversity & inclusion

Annual report

Give to MSK

Dr. Craig Thompson, MD, President & CEO, addressing high school students at the 2018 Major Trends in Modern Cancer Research lecture.

Student asking the speakers a question from the audience.

Dr. Adrienne Boire, MD PhD answering questions after her presentation.

Students and their teacher after meeting the researchers.

Students listening to presenters.

<

>

At

Student Lecture Updates

Get the latest information about our annual lecture for high school and college students.

Newsletter Sign Up

Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center, one of our goals is to inspire future scientists and physicians. We accomplish this in part by fostering young people's enthusiasm for science and by supporting secondary school science education.

In our annual seminar — Major Trends in Modern Cancer Research — leading scientists from Memorial Sloan Kettering discuss their work with high school students and science teachers. Students have an opportunity to interact with our investigators, ask questions, and learn about the latest advances in biomedical research.

View some of our past videos

Watch the 2021 Virtual Major Trends in Modern Cancer Research Program

Communication preferences

Cookie preferences

Legal disclaimer

Accessibility statement

Privacy policy

Price transparency

Public notices

© 2024 Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center