FOR THE MEDIA

The following is a list of resources survivors can use to find out more about insurance-related issues.

- National Coalition for Cancer Survivorship \(NCCS\) Insurance
NCCS offers valuable information on what cancer survivors need to know about health insurance.
- Georgetown University Health Policy Institute
The Health Policy Institute has prepared a consumer guide for getting and keeping health insurance in each state and in the District of Columbia. The guides are accessible for printing or viewing online.
- The Patient Advocate Foundation

The Patient Advocate Foundation is a national nonprofit organization that offers cancer survivors resources and counseling about health insurance.

- LegalHealth

LegalHealth provides free legal services to patients within the medical setting. These services include individual consultations, advice and counseling, direct representation, and referrals to other legal services or private attorneys. Weekly legal clinics are offered at New York City hospitals.

- Survivorship A-Z: Practical Information for Living Successfully After a Diagnosis

Survivorship A-Z provides practical information survivors need to thrive in the “new normal” that exists after a life-changing diagnosis.

- Insurance Information from the Lance Armstrong Foundation

The Lance Armstrong Foundation provides descriptions about the following: disability income insurance, individual and group health insurance, life insurance, and property and casualty insurance.

- Healthcare.gov

This site, managed by the U.S. Department of Health & Human Services, provides information on understanding the Affordable Care Act which was passed on March 23, 2010.
