Any former MSK employees interested in clinical rotations are encouraged to contact the GME office prior to applying.

International Medical Students

Memorial Sloan Kettering offers a select number of clinical electives to international students each year from January – June. Enrollment for the 2025 year will begin Monday September 7, 2024. Students should not send unsolicited CVs or application material, contact departments or elective directors to solicit rotations. Doing so will result in disqualification from the selection process.
