1. Do I need to apply for the program every year, even if I was accepted previously?

Yes, you must formally apply each and every year. The program is not set up for long-term mentorship.

Back to top ^

2. Can my lab project be used for competition in national science contests?

The internship in the program is only for eight weeks. We cannot guarantee that the faculty mentor will agree to host the student for longer than the 8-week commitment.

3. Who is eligible for the HOPP Student Summer Program?

All high-school Freshmen to high-school Seniors are eligible to apply. In addition, all participants must provide employment eligibility verification.

Back to top ^

4. May I participate in the program for a shorter time period?

Participants are required to complete the full eight weeks of the program onsite through the end of the last day. There are no exceptions. Students unable to adhere to these requirements should not apply. If you don't complete the full eight weeks, you will not receive a stipend.

5. If I am accepted, how long will I have to confirm that I will participate in the HOPP Summer Student Program?

After you are accepted, you are expected to confirm your participation in the program within three days of the notification. If you don't, you will forfeit your spot in the program.

Back to top ^

6. Can I mail in my application?

No. All parts of the application (including recommendation letters) must be submitted in a PDF format and submitted through our online application system. If you have issues uploading your application, email your documentation to HOPPSummerProgram@mskcc.org.

Back to top ^

7. May I contact the faculty member of a particular project?

Applicants are not permitted to contact individual faculty members during the application process. If you don't abide by this policy, you will be disqualified from consideration.

Back to top ^

8. Who should write recommendation letters for me?

In order for your application to be reviewed, you must have 2 strong recommendation letters from an academic advisor or scientific advisor. The letter should come from someone who can attest to your knowledge, interest, and strength in science, chemistry, and/or biology. Recommendation letters from family or friends will not be accepted.

10. What are the dates and hours of the program?

Typically, the program runs from the end of June to mid-August. It is a full-time internship, so students are expected to commit to 40 hours per week, Monday to Friday. Students hours vary depending on the mentor's schedule but usually are either 9AM-5PM or 10AM-6PM.

*Please note due to COVID-19 restrictions this schedule is subject to change.
