The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society and MSK's Resources for Life After Cancer Program Present:

FAQ: Surviving Cancer Under 40

Answers from a panel of patients and experts

Tuesday, June 30, 2015
5:30 pm – 7:30 pm

Zuckerman Research Center, 417 East 68th Street, New York, NY 10065
Enter on 68th Street (between York and 1st Avenues)

Diagnosis and treatment for cancer as a young adult can bring unique practical and emotional concerns about such things as fertility, dating, family relationships, careers, fear of recurrence, treatments, and financial strain.

Join us for a free patient education workshop for people living with cancer, their families, friends and healthcare professionals on the distinct challenges these young patients face.

PANELISTS:

Michael J. Mauro, MD

Leader, Myeloproliferative Neoplasms Program, Leukemia Service
Memorial Sloan Kettering
Leukemia & Lymphoma Society NYC Chapter Board of Trustees

Sergio Giralt, MD

Chief, Adult Bone Marrow Transplant Service
Melvin Berlin Family Chair in Multiple Myeloma
Memorial Sloan Kettering

Three MSK patients under the age of 40 who are receiving or have received treatment for a blood cancer will offer their experience and insight.

Complimentary snacks and beverages will be served.
