5th Annual
DERMATOLOGIC CARE IN ONCOLOGY SYMPOSIUM

Conference Location:
Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center
Rockefeller Research Laboratories
430 East 67th Street
New York, NY 10065

Course Overview
Chemotherapy, radiation, and therapeutic transplants have resulted in remarkable improvements in patient survival. Despite this remarkable success, the majority of patients will develop dermatologic, ocular and mucosal adverse events, which lead to decreased quality of life and inconsistent antineoplastic therapy, both of which may affect clinical outcome. Therefore, attentive dermatological, ocular and mucosal care is critical for the optimization of anticancer therapies.

TARGET AUDIENCE
This course is directed towards Oncologists, Oncology Nurses and Advanced Practitioners.

EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES
- Recognize impact on quality of life, clinical presentation, and grading of dermatologic, ocular, and mucosal adverse events in cancer patients
- Understand mechanisms and interventions to prevent and treat dermatologic, ocular, and mucosal conditions in patients treated for cancer
- Discuss basic dermatological procedures and clinical tools to assess dermatologic, ocular, and mucosal conditions in cancer patients
