SYMPOSIUM CHAIR

Gerald A. Soff M.D.
Chief, Hematology Service
Co-Director, Hematology-Oncology Fellowship

Featuring Speakers from MSKCC, Weill Cornell, and Guest Faculty.
This course is designed to provide an important annual educational forum for Hematology/Oncology doctors in the New York area who might not otherwise have an opportunity to obtain this information meant ultimately to enhance the care provided to patients. The ultimate objective of this activity is to enhance physician understanding of the disease state and treatment advances for the benefit of patients.

This course is directed toward Hematology/Oncology doctors in practice for a yearly update on thrombosis and hemostasis as well as fellows in training programs.
