

Tri-Institutional Career Symposium

April 4, 2017

8:30 AM – 7:30 PM

MSK Rockefeller Research Labs

430 E. 67th St

This daylong event will provide postdoctoral fellows and graduate students from the three sponsoring institutions information about a range of career paths available to PhDs in the biomedical sciences.

The symposium will include a keynote seminar from Melanie Sinche, a guru of PhD career development, and five career panels, each focusing on a different career path. The event will finish with the Tri-I's first ever Career Expo, which will feature representatives from 13 companies who will discuss career opportunities.
