

April is National Minority Health Month

Please Join Us for Free Community Events

The 360 Approach to Cancer

Offered in English and Spanish, this panel and program explores new holistic approaches to cancer treatment

Friday, April 5, 2019

5:00–7:30 PM

Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center
Zuckerman Research Center Auditorium
417 East 68th Street, NYC

Reducing Cancer Risk Through Wellness

Enjoy a free farmers' market following a nutrition presentation and cooking demonstration by MSK nutritionists

Wednesday, April 17, 2019

3:00 PM OR 4:00 PM

Ralph Lauren Center for Cancer Care
1919 Madison Avenue (entrance on East 124th St.), NYC

Understanding Your Health Insurance A Virtual Program

Tune in from home to this live, online presentation to learn more about understanding health insurance

Thursday, April 18, 2019

1:00–2:30 PM

Body and Mind Wellness: Overcoming Cancer Challenges

Enjoy a free farmers' market following a nutrition workshop and presentations from MSK dietitians, social workers, and the Immigrant Health and Cancer Disparities Service staff

Wednesday, April 24 2019

3:00–5:00 PM

MSK Nassau
1101 Hempstead Turnpike, Uniondale, Long Island

Free Additional Events & Resources:

- April 4 Prostate Cancer Support Group
- April 9 Gynecologic Cancer Support Group
- April 11 Head, Neck, and Oral Cancer Support Group
- April 15 Breast Cancer Support Group
- April 16 Colorectal Cancer Support Group

If you are new to Resources for Life After Cancer support groups, a registration and assessment process is necessary. Please call 646-888-8106 or email rlac@mskcc.org.

These support groups are open to cancer patients treated at MSK or in the community. Programs may change or be subject to cancellation. No observers without prior approval.

If interested in events, RSVP required: communityaffairs@mskcc.org or 646-227-3139

Memorial Sloan Kettering
Cancer Center