

Visitors

If you would like a Rabbi or someone from a local congregation to visit you, or to contact your own synagogue or Rabbi, please call ext. 5982 for assistance.

Volunteers from Congregation Kehilath Jeshurun (KJ) Bikur Cholim Society will visit patients on Shabbat upon request and offer prayer or kiddush at the bedside, please call ext. 5982.

To contact Chai Lifeline for supportive needs: <http://www.chailifeline.org>

Shabbat – Yom Tov

Electric Shabbat candles and grape juice can be obtained before 3 pm. Due to fire laws, lighting actual candles are not permitted.

The entrance on 67th Street has mechanical doors and is open 24/7.

There is a designated Sabbath elevator in the "M" (Main Building) elevator banks.

Stairwell "B" near the "M" elevator bank offers access to all patient floors.

Holiday/Yom Tov services are held as noted in special bulletins that are distributed prior to each holiday. Call ext. 5982 for more information.

Mi-shebayrach

Anyone wishing to have a Mi-shebayrach (prayer for healing) said on their behalf, please call ext. 5982.

Glatt Kosher Food

Glatt Kosher food for patients is available. Contact Room Service Associate ext. 2200 for guest meals.

Glatt Kosher chicken soup, kosher jello, blended food, Chalav Yisreal milk and other kosher foods can be obtained by calling the Satmar Bikur Cholim (718) 387-7749 any day except Shabbat or Yom Tov.

Glatt Kosher food for Pediatrics: daily dinners, Shabbat and holidays can be obtained by calling Chai Lifeline (212) 465-1300 or consult: www.chailifeline.org

Glatt Kosher food for Adults and Pediatric patients can be obtained by calling Chesed 24/7 (845) 354-3233

Kosher refrigerators are available on each nursing unit in the pantry.

Chesed 24/7 Hospitality Room, first floor, room C-172: table and chairs, light kosher meals, snacks, coffee, warmer and refrigeration available. Hospitality Room is open day and night, 24/7.

For Shabbos in a box or candles call ext. 5982.

Kosher Food Information

Bagels and Company

1428 York Avenue – (212) 717-0505

For a list of kosher restaurants in the area, please visit www.nachas.org/BethYehuda/kosher.html or www.ckj.org/Kosher_Restaurant_List.php

Synagogue and Kosher Dining Guide available from Chai Lifeline (212) 465-1300 or at www.chailifeline.org/

Local Housing

Housing is within walking distance for family members over Shabbat and Yom Tov. Make arrangements by calling or via email.

Manhattan Friendship House

434 East 66th Street

Yehuda Osina – Manager

Office: (212) 933-9033 ext. 1

yosina@manhattanfriendshiphouse.org

Eruv

To check the status of the eruv, call (212) 874-6100 ext 3 or visit www.ckj.org/Manhattan_Eruv.php

Synagogues in Memorial Hospital Area

(Please call for Minyan times)

CONSERVATIVE

East 55th Street Synagogue

308 East 55th Street – (212) 752-1200

Congregation or Zarua

127 East 82nd Street – (212) 452-2310

ORTHODOX

Chabad of the Upper East Side

419 East 77th Street – (212) 717-4613

Congregation Bnai Israel

335 East 77th Street – (212) 879-1558

Park East Synagogue

164 East 68th Street – (212) 737-6900

MODERN ORTHODOX

Congregation Kehilath Jeshurun

125 East 85th Street – (212) 774-5600

REFORM

Central Synagogue

123 East 55th Street – (212) 838-5122

Temple Shaaray Tefila

250 East 79th Street – (212) 535-8008