COURSE OVERVIEW

Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center is presenting this conference in collaboration with Mayo Clinic and MD Anderson Cancer Center to offer this unique educational opportunity. This course features leading experts in the field who will present a well-balanced program in robotic surgery in gynecology. This course consists of didactic lectures with question and discussion periods as well as video sessions. The goal of the conference is to provide the latest strategies to achieve maximum success when performing basic and complex pelvic surgery using the robotic surgical platform.

TARGET AUDIENCE

This conference should be of value to gynecologists, urogynecologists, and gynecologic oncologists, PA's, NP's, RN's and allied medical professionals.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

- Perform gynecologic surgeries using robotic surgical techniques to their full potential, translating into improved care and patient outcomes.
- Effectively plan and execute complex procedures in a robotic operating room.
- Collaborate with colleagues to determine formal steps and detailed guidelines for robotic, gynecologic procedures.
- Prevent and manage complications through proper patient assessment and risk awareness.
- Address current health care issues — financial and legal — in robotic surgery.
