

ART THERAPY DROP-IN OPEN STUDIO

Making art can be a helpful part of the healing process; it can enhance well-being and improve quality of life. MSKCC outpatients, and their family members and caregivers, are welcome to drop in during the art therapy Open Studio and create art in a creative and calming environment. You will learn about art techniques and materials that may be new to you, including watercolor and acrylic paints, collage, and pastels, which may be used for self-expression and relaxation and to help reduce feelings of anxiety or frustration.
